SENIOR SUMMER MOMENT - PAUL GORMAN

Senior Summer Moment brings a collection of new writing and photographs detailing life on the edge of sobriety, roaming the side streets, mixing pop culture metaphors with the deepest insights into desperate reality. All of this in the voice of a clever rap tinged old schooler, who has run many miles on a flat tire just to get home.

This is a beautiful zine, with its hand written poems on yellow steno pad paper, photocopied on piles of hardcopy 4'x6' snapshots.

limited edition of 100 copies, hand numbered 14 page double sided full color on satin paper with cardstock cover - 8.5" x 11"

FINDING MYSELF IN OTHER PLACES - LAMPS

LAMPS is everywhere and nowhere at all, constantly moving and unable to see, but LAMPS can be seen... In this new zine, ideas are spit out, developed, countered, and then torn apart. Each page is a non-sequitur of sorts, one-liners, polaroids, doodles, and manipulations fall in line one after another.

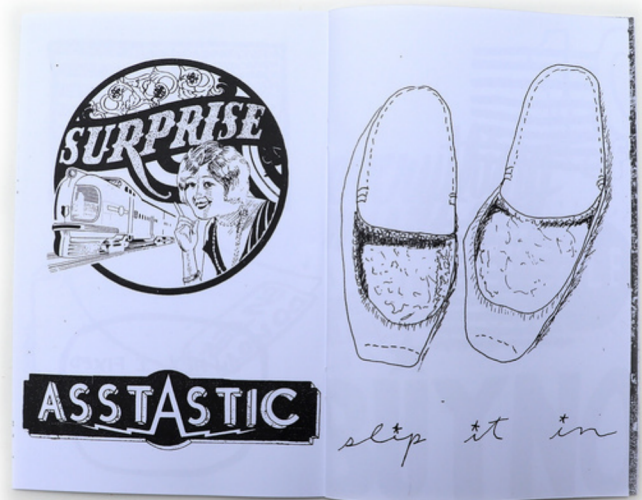

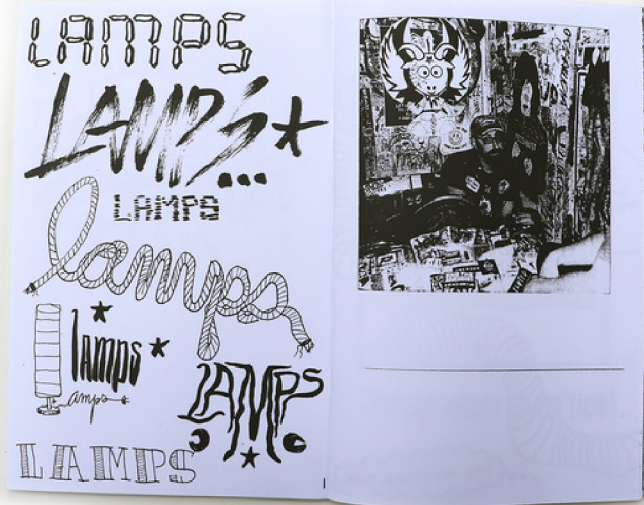

LAMPS is part of the contemporary freight moniker world, a trained photographer, and a dedicated producer of things. Here is the most recent burst of life processed through the printed page. Get one.

TWISTED LINKS TOTE - HEST FTV X CUT IN THE FENCE

Cut In The Fence is excited to bring you new collaboration with the wizard of the north country, HEST FTV. They superimposed a surreal scene of obscured views and pathways to eternity, blocked by a mysterious totem of chain link. Is it a symbol of urban / mental lockdown or a flashing reminder of what you now have been freed from? Either way, it looks super cool and reps this zine thing while flexing like the style master HESTE LAUDER does on the daily.

limited edition of 100 (50 per colorway) one sided dark green screen print on golden yellow or dusty pink tote 15" x 15.5"
